JURY SELECTION OVERVIEW

Social Slooth Inc. (social media research) has partnered with JurorSearch (software) to provide jury consultants and law firms the perfect solution for your next trial. We make scheduling super easy and can scale our team size and pricing for your trial needs. Don't worry if your team is not tech savvy: we can take care of all the data entry and setup during the trial (if preferred).

Social Slooth is the go-to social media research choice for law firms and jury consulting firms across the United States. The Social Slooth team is lightning fast, accurate and has utilized JurorSearch for multiple high profile federal trials.

JUROR BIAS & RED FLAGS

Social Slooth researches each juror to discover any evidence of bias through social media or public records searches with our cloud-based platform — red flags are immediately sent to the courtroom attorney or jury consultant to make on-the-fly decisions during voir dire.

FAST & ACCURATE

Not many companies can research 25-75 names as fast as Social Slooth. Our research is vetted by expert social media analysts who are highly trained and know the importance of accuracy, legal compliance, and bias documentation. When you hire Social Slooth, you can trust that your high-value case is in good hands.

ORGANIZED RESEARCH

We provide information on each juror through public records searches and social media research. How do we share information to the courtroom instantly in an organized, intuitive way? Social Slooth (research) + JurorSearch (software).

USER-FRIENDLY

We help compile and organize all social media research in one place (JurorSearch). You can review two, three, four or all jurors side-by-side for a clear comparison to decide who should be struck or kept.
